Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weaknesses, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weaknesses, derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce, the maker of that world-famed remedy for woman's peculiar weaknesses and ills—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which his treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus or other displacement of the womanly organs, it is very necessary that, in addition to taking his "Favorite Prescription" they abstain from being very much, or for long periods, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining of any kind should also be avoided. As much out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.

If sick consult the Doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius to Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Sam Small in the Saddle Again.

A scene which no human pen can describe faithfully, and which thrilled and made to tremble, 3,500 souls broke forth Tuesday night at the Torrey-Alexander meeting, in Atlanta, Ga., where the revival there in progress has for the past week been sagging dangerously near to a fatal fall—a fall which at the last would spell the ugly and much shunned word, "failure."

But the incidents of Tuesday night turned failure into success and brought hundreds to conversion. The meeting had rather dragged, and though Dr. Torrey had preached a sermon, which sounded with fearful distinctness the warning of the coming judgment before the bar of God, the call for sinners to repent found only two willing to stand up. And after the solo these two refused to stand again.

Just as Dr. Torrey was about to despair a chair was moved back on the platform and at his side stood Sam W. Small, every muscle in his body quivering with emotion, yet when he spoke his voice was clear and distinct.

"Dr. Torrey," he said, "I once accepted Christ, and had the full joy of his salvation, but I have drifted far away, and God knows I need to repent, and, God helping me, I do now and here repent and tender my life to him," and so saying he sank into a chair and his head fell on the table in front of him, while he wept. An instant hush an interested hush—silenced the house, and in the quiet of the moment Dr. Torrey said:

"Mr. Alexander, come here and pray for Sam Small," And from his seat in the rear Mr. Alexander came to the front and, putting his arm on Sam Small's shoulders, prayed. Before the words of Mr. Alexander had died away Dr. Torrey began praying. Then a tremendous wave of religious enthusiasm swept over the meeting.

Killed in Her Bedroom.

While preparing to retire at 11 o'clock Tuesday night Mrs. Ebb Williams, a bride of a few months, of Augusta, Ga., was shot to death by some person, who fired throught the window of her bedroom. Mrs. Williams fell over on the bed, and her husband, who was in the room, ran to her and attempted to revive her. As he was bending over the body of his wife a second shot crashed through the window, but did not strike Mr. Williams. The tragedy occurred at Beech Island, about six miles from Augusta, on the Savannah river. It is said that the murder was the result of a plot among negroes who intended to rob the Williams home. Six negroes are held by neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Williams, and the feeling is so bitter that if proper evidence can be secured there is little likelihood of a legal trial. Mrs. Williams was a beautiful woman, and ould have been a mother in a few onths.

Serminary Burned.

The Colored Seminary for Girls, at Ingleside, the junction of the Southern and the Norfolk and Western Railroads, near Burkeville, about 25 miles from Richmond, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, the loss being estimated at $80,000, exclusive of personal property. There were 200 girls in the institution. No casualties have been reported, but the girls were forced to leave the building hastily in their night clothes. The seminary was a large and thoroughly equipped building. It was four stories high, built of stone and brick, and only last fall a $15,000 wing was added. The school was one of about a dozen others built and managed in the South by the Freedman's Bureau, with headquarters in Pittsburg, and supported by the Presbyterian Church. It was built about 15 years ago, and since that time has been very popular with the better class of colored people in Virginia and the South.

Tomorrow, Friday, Is REMNANT DAY.

Our patrons and the public generally know the object of our Weekly Remnant Sale and its character. It is our method of disposing of remnant accumulations in order to present at the beginning of each week fresh, complete, and attractive stocks of merchandise for your inspection and selection. We do not have worn-out, unusable things. We do have large quantities of odd lots of all sorts of desirable, useful merchandise that we clear out quickly by means of reduced prices.

The Remnant Sale will be very interesting this week. Some of the larger offerings we can and do tell about. But it's not a paradox that the littlest bargains are the biggest, and they're too short-lived to tell about.

Friday, therefore, is the best shopping day of the week for women who want to buy economically—and tomorrow will be no exception.

FINANCIAL

TO OUR DEPOSITORS is one of the strong features in favor of this corporation, for where there is liberality there is conservatism and safety, for in being liberal with our patrons we are not only extending our business but also doing something which contributes to the general prosperity of our city. Since the day this institution first opened its doors for business and invited, encouraged and assisted the people of all ages and conditions in life to form correct habits of economy, and save some portion of their earnings, its success has been unexcelled by any banking institution in northern Virginia. We attribute our success largely to the fact that we have shared with our depositors OUR PROFITS by allowing them 3 PER CENT. interest in our Savings Department. The daily deposits of the executor, administrator, curator, assignee, receiver, trustee under decree or will, or order of court receive interest on their monthly balances. Liberal interest allowed on money deposited pending investment, and on certificates of deposits, and all other special accounts. This corporation has unsurpassed facilities for handling the accounts of banks, corporations and individuals, and solicits the same.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 24, 1906.

R. E. LEE CAMP of Confederate Veterans and other citizens of Alexandria will today observed the anniversary of the departure from this city of the eight companies of soldiers which had been formed here for service in the Army of Northern Virginia, six of which were infantry, one of artillery and one of cavalry. Forty-five years have passed away since the thrilling scenes of that eventful morning, and many who escaped death in the clash of war and returned to their homes four years later have since joined the great majority. A few, however, are still among us, and on each 24th of May they pay respect to the memory of the dead by appropriate services and by strewing flowers upon their mounds. The weather today has been ideal and the exercises, which, as usual, will be interesting, will be witnessed by large numbers.

POWERFUL furtherance of Mayor George W. Guthrie's crusade against property owners who lease their buildings in Pittsburg, Pa., for immoral purposes was given yesterday when District Attorney Robert E. Stewart caused information to be laid against Daniel Brady and his wife, Mary. The Bradys are among the wealthiest property holders of Pittsburg. They live in a luxuriously appointed home in Centre avenue, in the very heart of the fashionable East End district. They have six daughters, who entertain lavishly, and who are members of the city's exclusive circle. There are six counts in the information against the Bradys. These charge the leasing for immoral purposes of houses. The Pittsburg authorities are pursuing the proper course by not allowing the wealth or social standing of people who violate laws to protect them.

IT COST just $1 for Joseph F. Gallup to settle the breach-of-promise suit which Mrs. Frances S. Piersol had brought against him in Coatesville, Pa. The woman had demanded $49,999 more than she received. This reminds us of an incident in connection with the burning of the steamer Wawaset off Chatterton in 1873. A man who was a passenger on the ill-fated steamer, but who escaped personal injury and suffered the loss of no baggage, appeared at the company's office shortly after the disaster and asked for $5,000 damages. His attention was called to the fact that he had suffered neither loss nor personal damage. The man said his nervous system had been shocked. He finally compromised the case for $5.

JUDGE J. R. BRYAN, of Roanoke, yesterday placed Henry Hartharger under heavy bond and farmed him out to a local firm for 12 months, with the agreement that his wife and three children should draw the pay. He was arrested upon the charge of refusing to support his wife and little ones. The judge is evidently the right man in the right place, and it would be well for others holding judicial positions throughout the State to take similar action against certain indolent men who neglect to take care of their wives and children. Every community is disgraced by a percentage of men who fail to realize that it is incumbent upon them to support their families.

IN ANOTHER column an interesting scene at a revival meeting in Atlanta, Ga., is described in which Sam Small played a conspicuous part. Small, after a brilliant career as an evangelist, entered the political field and was employed to make campaign speeches. The swir of politics soon blunted his spiritual tastes, as has ever been the result, and after realizing as did Solomon nearly three thousand years ago, that all is vanity and vexation of spirit, has returned to the fold. He has brought forth the fruits meet for repentance, and it is hoped he will resume his life of usefulness and be faithful unto death.

CAPTAIN TREVILLIAN in his testimony yesterday before the committee investigating the Williamsburg Hospital said the trouble between the officers of that institution was brought about by differences of religion and politics. There is no excuse whatever for precipitating such issues in a public institution, and steps should be taken at once to prevent it in the future.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, May 24.

Clarence T. Boykin, manager of the Belasco Theatre, was fined ten dollars in the police court this morning for disorderly conduct in attempting to interfere with Joseph Washington, the President's driver. Last night about half an hour before the show closed Washington called at the theatre to take Mrs. Roosevelt to the White House at the close of the show. He drove through the private alley to the side entrance used exclusively by the President's family. On the hard brick pavement the clatter of the horses' hoofs rendered it almost impossible for the players to be heard. Manager Boykin harried to the scene of action. Discerning a carriage standing at the back of the theatre he spoke to Washington, saying that this was no place for him to keep his team. "This is the President's carriage and I am going to stay here until the show is out," Washington said. "Well if you stay here you've got to keep those horses still," responded Boykin. Just then policeman Holmes, of the 1st precint, rushed around the corner widly excited and succeeded in calming the ruffled spirit of the manager, but Washington seeing that the law and order society was on his side gathered courage and excited the theater man to the extent that he climed on the box after him. Holmes immediately arrested the manager and led him away to the station house. Just about the time the little affair was over, Mrs. Roosevelt stepped from the box to be driven to the White House.

His Highness Maharajah Gaikwar of Baroda, India, laid aside royalty today for a few hours of informal sight seeing, and visited a number of public buildings. Before leaving he was interviewed by a number of newspaper representatives. Dressed in plain but neat American garb and speaking excellent English, the Prince said that every ruler should remember that his country does not contain all the good things in existence. "I must remember that in Baroda there is something worth while outside the native and predominating English influences. That is why I am in America" He announced that upon his return to Baroda he will send a number of students to America to take courses in the agricultural colleges here, believing that Baroda must look to agriculture for her prosperity. He is very much interested in the Bureau of Fisheries, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, and will endeavor to secure a visit of an expert of this bureau to Baroda. His Highness was highly impressed with President Roosevelt. But it was John Sharp Williams, minority leader in the House, who took his eye. The Prince said that he was not sufficiently conversant with American politics to comprehend all that Mr. Williams was saying yesterday while the Prince visited the House, yet he was greatly impressed with Mr. Williams' ability. Six weeks in America is too short a time for a study of this country, the Prince said, so he intends to return. He will visit few cities while here, rather than make a hurried journey to many. The Prince will make one trip to San Francisco.

If the republicans of the House will permit the House the vote on a motion to concur in four of the 58 amendments placed on the Hepburn bill by the Senate, Representative Williams, of Mississippi, the democratic floor leader, is willing to let the House non-concur in the other 49 and send them to conference He has made a proposition to that effect to Chairman Hepburn of the House committee on interstate and foreign commerce and has declared that he will subordinate his statehood filibuster to the paramount importance of this bill. But he has received no encouragement and the republican leaders expect to carry out the original plan of accompanying the bill with a rule calling for an immediate vote on a motion to non-concur in all the amendments and sent them to conference. The four amendments upon which Williams demands the concurrence of the House are number two, including express companies under the terms of the bill; No. 31, striking out the words "fairly remunerative" as applied to the rate to be established; No. 47, which by provisions for a bill of lading might release the carrier from common law liabilities, and No. 48 which prevents the appointment of a new commission to supercede the old one. He must insist particularly on Nos. 21 and 31, he says, because he stood for them before the Hepburn bill was presented; he only abandoned his position to secure unanimity of action in the House. He has received private assurance, he says that the conferees would not touch these amendments but he can not accept private assurances in a matter where failure would put him in a false light. He is willing to let the other amendments go to conference he says, although they require recasting in many particulars and the anti-pass amendments, he says, is especially crude and the court review amendment should be so modified as to make clear that it is the intention merely to fix venue for the proper exercise of the courts constitutional powers. The House committee on rules will bring up the matter, probably tomorrow. It is the intention of Mr. Williams to offer an amendment to the proposed rule, which will permit a vote on a motion to concur in the four amendments specified.

Advices from the West Indes received at the State Department today contained a message from C. H. Payne, American consul at St. Thomas, stating that a close watch upon the Dominican exiles there had developed no activites indicating what may happen in the line of invasion of Santo Domingo. It is known that there are arms and amunitions of war in the possession of the Dominicans in St. Thomas. The administration's policy in case of an invasion, as defined by orders sent to Commander Southerland, senior American naval officer in Domigican waters, at present consists of observation of the prospective invaders. It is not believed that any armed measures will be taken to prevent a landing. American interests, however, will be protected and American citizens will of course be protected.

Frank Dement, recently convicted in Police Court of ill-treating his wife, was arraigned in Criminal Court this morning on indictments charging him with assault and assault with attempt to kill his three-year-old step-daughter. He pleaded not guilty.

Harvey's well-known restaurant, in this city, which for 40 years has been managed by the Harvey's has been sold to Joel Hillman for $105,000 and will on Monday next change hands.

It is unsafe to say "You bet your life," "I'll bet I'll lose my train," or any other remark signifying a wager in the District of Columbia. This at least is the lesson taught William Smith, a colored messenger in the Treasury Department, and James Cox, a barber in the Colonial Hotel, when they were fined $10 each in police court this morning for betting on the ball game yesterday. They were witnessing the game between the Washington and St. Louis teams and becoming excited during the contest said something about betting. At about that time, according to the story of Cox, some gentleman in the neighborhood asked him to change a $5 bill. He was obliging the stranger when a big lieutenant of police stepped up and gathered him in, and not wishing to show partiality, arrested his friend Smith. They were obliged to scratch around and find $50 apiece to avoid spending the night in the police station, and this morning, after a consultation with the District Attorney were released on forfeiture of $10 each.

Maj. Holmes Conrad, in behalf of all Washington welcomed the members of the Grand Council of the United Commercial Travelers of America to Washington today, when it convened in its tenth annual session, at Pythian Temple.

While it is no more alarming than it has been for months, the situation in China concerning this country's relations is said to be grave. High officials in the State Department express pessimistic views. The boycott against American goods is still in favor. The full effect of the movement has been promised for this summer and fall. Not only will American traders suffer through the failure of the Chinese to take a large part of the goods booked and shipped to Chinese ports, on which exporters stand to incure heavy losses, but there is a prospect that disturbances may accompany the efforts of some Chinese buyers needing American goods to handle the boycotted wares. No outrages have been reported recently, the Chinese viceroys having msiutained control of the unruly classes but the smoldering hatred of foreigners, particularly Americans, is in no whit abated. The agitators it is believed will undoubtedly make use of the reported discrimination, whether well or ill founded, against Chinese during the San the Francisco disaster. The declaration of Chinese Minister here, after an inspection of the arrangements at San Francisco, that the Chinamen had been well cared for would hardly counteract the effect of the less favorable stories circulated just after the earthquake and fire.

Senator Elkins, of West Virginia, chairman of the Senate committee on Interstate Commerce, had a conference with the President this morning over certain legal phases of the rate bill. The Senator said that the Senate is now waiting for the appointment of the House conferees, and is ready at any time to "wind up the matter." A great many colored organizations throughout the country Senator Elkins said, are disturbed over the amendment to the bill requiring railroads to give equal accomodations to all races for equal consideration, under the impression that the section will cause the introducing of "jim crow" cars in the northern States. The amendment will have no such effect, Senator Elkins said, and the colored people are unnecessarily agitated.

Senator Alee of Delaware had a long talk with President Roosevelt at the White House this morning on the political situation in Delaware. On leaving, the Senator said: "Col. Henry A. Dupont will be the next U. S Senator from Delaware, and he will be elected inside of two weeks at a special session of the legislature. The republican party in Delaware is going to be thoroughly reorganized, and we are going to have harmony if we have to fight for it." It is understood that the President expressed to Senator Alee his sympathy with the movement to reorganize the party in that State.

What for a time was thought would be a serious conflagration occurred this morning at Cabin John Bridge. The scenic railway was partially destroyed, but by strenuous efforts the principal buildings were saved. The loss is about $4,000.

News of the Day.

News of another small outbreak in Santo Domingo has reached Washington from a senior naval officer on that station.

Emperor Nicholas has accepted the resignation of Admiral Rojestvensky, which was tendered on the ground of ill health, following wounds received in the war with Japan.

The San Francisco banks opened their doors yesterday and paid all demands without limit. There was an ample reserve in coin, government bonds and gilt edged securities.

The Senate yesterday passed the immigration bill. The bill consists of a series of amendments to the existing law all of them intended to permit stricter regulations for keeping out the detective classes of aliens. The head tax is increased from $2 to $5.

The Russian government yesterday issued a statement, giving as the reason for the refusal to grant full amnesty the restless state of the country. M. Milukoff issued a warning to the autocrats, predicting a revolution unless the demand for a constitution was granted.

Several hundred pupils of the Baldwin public school in Philadelphia watched their classmate, Marie Borbonus, burn to death yesterday morning. Marie who was 9 years old, was during recess attracted by a bonfire in a vacant lot back of the schoolhouse. She declared before she died that a girl pushed her into the fire.

Edward Payson Weston, the old-times pedestrian, now 68 years of age, reached the City Hall in New York at 11:35 last night, having walked from the City, Hall, Philadelphia, in 23 hours 30 minutes, a distance of 92 miles, thus beating his own record made a quarter of century ago.

Insanity experts were put on the stand by the defense yesterday in the trial of Josephine Terranova, who killed Gaetano and Concetta Riggio, her uncle and aunt, at their home, in Williamsbridge, N. Y., on the night of Washington's Birthday. They testified that the girl was of unsound mind and not responsible for the murder of her unnatural relatives.

The cause of unionism between the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterian General Church in the United States, the latter being in session in Des Moines, Iowa, now, received a decided impetus at yesterday's session, when telegrams of good will and brotherly greetings were exchanged with the Cumberlands, being in session at Decatur, Ill.

Rev. L. N Glenn, colored, was convicted in the Supreme Court in Winston-Salem, N. C., yesterday afternoon of improper relations with a girl under fourteen years. There are two other similar indictments against him and one for abducting the wife and daughter of another man and taking them to Pittsburg, Pa. During the trial it was shown that Glenn during his pastorate in Winston Salem conducted a physical culture school for female members of his congregation.

A daring street robbery, which resulted in the highwayman getting away with over $8,000 worth of diamonds and watches, occurred in New Haven, Conn., late Tuesday night. Barnard Steinfeld, of New York, was held up near the railroad station by a robber, who grabbed Steinfeld's bag and disappeared in the freight yards. The police have not yet found a clue. Steinfeld is a sales agent for a New York jewelry house, and was walking toward the station when the robbery occurred.

Henry Sheer, only twelve years of age, yesterday shot and killed Wm. Fontroy, a negro, aged nineteen, in Washington. The trouble of which the outcome was the slaying of Fontroy was evidently of long standing. Young Sheer worked in the notion store of his father, Max Sheer, at 520 New Jersey avenue, northwest. It was in the notion store that the killing took place. There was just one witness, and his story agrees in all details with that told by the prisoner, which is to the effect that Fontroy bullied him beyond endurance in addition to being guilty of petty peculations.

James Parr, accused of causing the death of Mabel Kelley in Pittsburg last Thursday night was arrested at Cleveland, Ohio, yesterday. Parr is a travelling salesman from Buffalo, where, it is said, he has a wife and family. The lifeless body of Miss Kelley, a nineteen year old girl, was found in a room at the City Hotel, Pittsburg. Parr is said to have admitted to the Cleveland police that he was with the girl for two nights. Death was found to have been due to an overdose of bichloride of mercury.

High officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad before the Interstate Commerce Commission at Philadelphia yesterday told of their holdings of stock in coal companies and defended the practice. Disclosures showed that W. A. Patton, assistant to President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, holds $370,000 in stocks of soft coal companies which cost him nothing and that Vice President Rea has large holdings, acquired principally through his connection with development companies, which he defends as proper.

Edward Roe, proprietor of Anthony's Mill, about two and one-half miles from Denton, Md., met with a fatal accident while at work in the mill about 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Roe had just started the gasoline engine when the skirt of his coat was caught in the machinery and he was thrown around a revolving shaft till his entire clothing was stripped from the body and scattered over the mill. One arm was nearly torn from the body and one leg broken and lacerated. He died within two hours. Mr. Roe was about 40 years of age. He leaves a widow and four children.

In the presence of her daughter, who made an unsuccessful effort to stifle the flames, Mrs. Sarah Gray, aged 79 years, prominent socially, and widow of David Gray, who was a well-known Baltimorean, was burned to death about 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in a bathroom at the Berkeley Apartment-house, at 104 west Eager street. So horribly was the aged lady burned that her body resembled a charred log of wood, and her features were unrecognizable. Just how the accident occurred will probably never be known, but it is thought that her dress ignited from a gas stove used for heating purposes in the bathroom.

The Northern Commercial Company of Alameda, Cal., has received the following from its agent at Fairbanks, Alaska: "The entire town from Turner to Lacey street and back to Third, except the Fairbanks Building Company's building and warehouse, have been destroyed. One woman was burned to death. The fire has been extinguished. Fairbanks is situated on the Chena river, a tributary of the Tanana, and, although but three years old, is now the largest and most important city on the Pacific Coast north of Vancouver, B. C., having a population of about 7,000. The gold output in 1905 was $7,000,000 and during the present year it is expected to exceed $12,000,000. The burnt district covers 3½ acre blocks. An unofficial estimate places the loss at about $1,000,000.

Unveiling of Tablets.

An interesting ceremony at the University of Virginia yesterday afternoon was the unveiling of two bronze tablets, designed to commemorate the noble patriotism of those students of the university who lost their lives in the actual military service of the Confederacy—those who died from sickness or wounds in the army as well as those who were killed in battle.

A number of alumni of the university from different parts of the country was present to attend the unveiling. The speakers addressed the audience from the south portico of the rotunda, with the audience seated on the porch and esplanade and on the steps and lawn.

The tablets containing 500 names, with places of residence and place of death, were presented on behalf of the donors, the Ladies' Confederate Memorial Association of the University of Virginia and Charlottesville, by Rev. Dr. J. William Jones, a former private and later chaplain in the Confederate service, at one time chaplain of the University of Virginia, and now chaplain general of the United Confederate Veterans, and treasurer of the Confederate Battle Abbey Association.

The tablets were selected on behalf of the university by President Edwin A. Alderman, while the address in memory of the deceased alumni was delivered by Rev. Dr. Randolph H. McKim, rector of the Church of the Epiphany, Washington, D. C. Dr. McKim was a Marylander by birth, an alumnus of the University of Virginia, and a former private in the First Maryland Regiment, C. S. A., later aide de-camp to Brigadier General George H. Stewart, and afterward Chaplain to the Second Virginia Regiment of Cavalry, C. S. A., commanded by Col. Thomas T. Munford.

During the winter of 1860-61 two companies of students were formed, the Southern Guard and the Sons of Liberty. When they were enlisted, however, they were, at General Lee's request, scattered through the army. The 600 students of the session enlisted almost to a man, as well as the alumni of other sessions, and the great majority never came back.

Brooding, it is said, over the blighting frosts that two weeks ago damaged the crops, Wallace Hughes, whose farm is situated several miles from Pole Green, in Hanover county, committed suicide on Tuesday by shooting himself with a shotgun. His neck was broken by the charge of shot, and he died almost instantly. The details of the tragedy are very meager. Mr. Hughes had lived in that section for some years. He was a man of about middle age and without a family.

Made Happy for Life.

Great happiness came into the home of S. C. Blair, school superintendent, at St. Albans, W. Va., when his little daughter was restored from the dreadful complaint he names. He says: "My little daughter had St. Vitus Dance, which yielded to no treatment but grew steadily worse until as a last resort we tried Electric Bitters; and I rejoice to say, three bottles effected a complete cure." Quick, sure cure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by E. B. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, Price 50c

Today's Telegraphic News

Departure of Princess Ena.

All along the route from Kensington Palace to the Victoria station the future queen was cordially saluted by people who were anxious to bid her a glad farewell. The departure of the Royal party, however, was made as quiet as possibe, and there was no crush at the station. Princess Ena was accompanied by her mother, Princess Henry, and her brothers, Princes Maurice and Leopold, and the Marquis Villalobar, councillor of the Spanish embassy. When they arrived at the station the royal family gathered in a special waiting room where the farewells were said. King Edward in person conducted Princess Ena to her saloon. Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales and members of the families of the Duke of Connaught and the Duke of Teck were also present. As the train pulled out of the station there were loud cheers from the assembled crowd while the British and Spanish subjects joined in the cries of "Long Live the Queen of Spain." From London the wedding party will go to Dover and thence to Calais. The overland trip toward Madrid will be made in a special train.

Would-be Assassin.

Geneva, May 24.—The facts were made known today of an attempt which was made on Saturday, during the ceremonies in connection with the opening of the Simplon Tunnel, Domodossola, Italy, to assassinate King Victor Emmanuel. An anarchist, known to be dangerous, made the attempt and he was only frustrated through the watchfulness of the detectives guarding the King. During the reception given by the King to the Swiss authorities the anarchist approached Victor Emmanuel holding out a paper in his left hand, as if he would present a petition to the King. He was within two yards of the King when detectives intercepted him and placed him under arrest. It was then found that there was no writing on the paper he held, and that a long stiletto was concealed in his right sleeve. The anarchist comes from Milan where he is connected with the anarchist organization.

Graft Among Officials.

Philadelphia, Pa., May 24.—Closely following the exposures of graft among the officials "higher up" in the Pennsylvania Railroad, Wm. G. Glasgow, jr., counselor for the Interstate Commerce Commission, this morning started once more upon his work of bringing to light the descrimination of car distribution and stockholding railroad employees. The first one to take the stand was Fred Vrooman, assistant train master the Tyrone division. Witnesses acknowledged that he had received money from certain coal operators and that they expected favors from him in return. Witness also said he had 25 shares in the G. L. Whitaker Coal Co. for which he paid $675 in 1900. Victor Weirman, assistant superintendet of the Camden and Amboy Railroad, subsequently informed the commission that he owned stock in several coal companies.

Woman Suffragists' Demonstration.

London, May 24.—There was a novel demonstration today on the part of woman suffragists at Hammersmith, where Mrs. Dora Montefiere, a promiuent advocate of the right of women to vote, is at present engaged in a peculiar struggle with the authorities in an effort to impress upon the government the necessity of paying some attention to suffragists. Mrs. Montefiere, who is an independent woman, refused to pay her income tax and barricaded her house against the tax collector and bailiffs, asserting that taxation without representation is tyranny and she would not submit to it. This morning a band of suffragists marched to Mrs. Montefiere's home with banners flying and made a demonstration before the house. Speeches were made advocating woman suffrage.

Beat Wife's Head to Pulp.

Elmira, N. Y., May 24.—Leon Kiffer, an insane cooper, aged sixty, angered at his family because he was to be removed to the Binghampton State Hospital today, beat his wife's head to a pulp with a shovel and a hammer at his home, No. 212 Gregg street, early this morning. Leaving her for dead, Kiffer attacked his sixteen-year-old daughter, whom he cornered in the hall. A neighbor, who heard the cries of the women, rushed in and felled the insane man with a chair. The daughter escaped with slight injury. Kiffer then climbed to the top of the two-story house in which he lived and jumped off, but was unhurt. Mrs Kiffer was taken to the hospital in a dying condition. Kiffer was arrested and will be taken to Binghampton this afternoon.

Union of Churches.

Des Moines, Ia., May 24.—The Cumberland branch of the Presbyterian church past out of existence today. When Moderator Hunter officially established the union of the Cumberland church with the Presbyterian church. The existing board of two churches will carry on the work in harmony this year and there will be no actual consolidated until 1907. Moderator Corbett announced that the "basis of the reunion and union is now in full force and effect and the Cumberland Presbyterian church is now reunited with the Presbyterian church in the United States as one church making the union complete.

German Influence Waning.

Constantinople, May 24.—Since the Tabah incident, when Turkey was forced to accede to the English demand for the evacuation of Egyptian territory, British influence with the Porte has been steadily increasing at the expense of Germany which has lost prestige. It is doubtful whether the Germans will be able to complete the Bagdad Railway, owing to the many difficulties and the lack of sufficient capital. The Sultan who has been sick, has left his bed. He received the British Ambassador in an audience which lasted over an hour.

Threatening Letters.

St. Petersburg, May 24.—Members of the Douma are receiving numerous threatening letters, especially from peasants and Jews who are dissatisfied with the course of events. The government is encouraging opposition to the Douma in every form in which it presents itself. Even socialistic meetings are allowed where the Douma is denounced. The Official Messenger, the organ of the government, continues to print telegrams addressed to the Czar praying him to save Russia and disperse the Douma.

Murder Mystery.

New York, May 24.—The police are today trying to clear up the mystery surrounding the identity of the man whose body was found floating in the North river off Ninety-seventh street late yesterday evening. The trunk and head are now at the morgue, but the legs have not as yet been located. The police expect to develop a murder mystery not unlike the murder of William Guldersepp, who was put to death by Martin Thorn and Mrs. Nack.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, May 24.

SENATE.

Mr. Lodge gave notice in the Senate today that he would call up tomorrow the measure authorizing the Philippine commission to lower the amount of silver in the Philippine coins of that metal so as to prevent their exportation for their bullion value. The present price of silver is so high that the Philippine peso is worth more for bullion than its face value.

HOUSE.

Political speeches were again the order of the day in the House today when the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill was taken up in the committee of the whole.

Charles A. Towne, a New York democrat, famous as an orator, at one time a Senator from Minnesota, was the first speaker. He said that he intended to show why the republican party should be driven out of power and the democratic party installed and made this the text for a vigorous attack on President Roosevelt and his policies.

Touching upon the recent "stand pat" speech of Representative Cushman, of Washington, Mr. Towne said that Cushman "had "performed well" as the "funny champion of a desperate cause." He replied to the Cushman taunt that he had once been a republican with a statement to the effect that when he left that party on the money question he "laid down an office to leave it" and if he had not left it on the money question he would have left it for other reasons fifty times since.

Mr. Dalzell addressed the House defending the Dingley tariff law.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Iowa republicans have adopted resolutions favoring Secretary Shaw for president.

George Crevaling, aged sixty-six, a well-known hotel keeper of Philipsburg, N. J., died at the Easton, Pa., hospital today from a fractured skull received by falling from a bicycle yesterday.

Notices have been posted in all the cotton mills in New London and Windham counties, Conn., of a ten per cent. increase in wages to take effect at once. The increase affects 20,000 operatives.

Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, daughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who is sick in New York said this morning that her mother was considerably better.

Virginia Building.

After spending all of yesterday afternoon looking over plans submitted by a dozen or more architects for Virginia's building at the Jamestown Exposition, the State commissioners to the exposition last night accepted the plans submitted by Messrs. Breese & Mitchell, of Norfolk. The building will be of brick, Colonial in design, and will cost $25,000. It will have a 116 foot frontage on the water, including piazzas, which will take up 50 feet, and will be two stories and an attic in height. The first floor will contain two large reception rooms, a very large hall and corridors, the Governor's suite and the lady commissioners' suite. There will be seven bedrooms and two bathrooms on the second floor. The building, the commissioners think, will be an exceedingly pretty one and it will be a permanent structure.

Knights of Pythias.

The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, in session in Staunton yesterday evening elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Grand Chancellor, R. E. Warren, Portsmouth, Va.; Grand Vice-Chancellor, Rev. J. H. Dickerson, Richmond; Grand Prelate, L. E. Scott, Crewe, Grand Master Exchequer, T. L. Courtney, Richmond, Va.; Grand Keeper of Records and Seals, H. M. Darnall, Roanoke; Grand Master-at-Arms R. H. Mann, Petersburg; Grand Inner Guard, Jefferson Wallace, Richmond, and Outer Guard, H. M. Lewis, Staunton. The next meeting will be held in Lynchburg.

Catheine Cutter, aged four years, was shot and instantly killed at her parents' residence at Homestead, Pa., by her brother Wiley, aged six years, yesterday. During the morning, the children found an old revolver which was not known to be loaded. Playfully pointing the gun at his sister, the boy pulled the trigger and a bullet was discharged into the brain of the little girl.

Everybody's Magazine for June, which has been received from its publishers in New York, keeps up to its own admirable standard. James Hopper tells the story of the San Francisco earthquake and fire, and Vernon Howe publishes pictures of the destroyed city sketched by him a few days before the earthquake. "Bucket Shops Sharks" begins a series of revelations of one of our greatest national evils. In the instalment of "Soldiers of the Common Good" a strong appeal to the heart is made. "Campaign against Consumption" and "Women First" are full of important facts. Lawson has a readable article entitled "Punch and Judying the United States Court." Eight clever stories, poems, reviews, etc., conclude this issue.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and useless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give you One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Virginia News.

The statue of Gov. William Smith will be unveiled on the Capitol Square, at Richmond, Wednesday, May 30. We acknowledge an invitation to be present.

Miss Seldie Smith, daughter of Mr. Alonzo Smith, of Montpelier, was thrown from her horse while out riding a day or two ago and almost instantly killed, her neck being broken.

The engagement is announced of Miss Effie Hunter, of Washington, to Dr. B. F Noland, a prominent physician of Ashburn, near Leesburg. The wedding will take place on June 30.

The largest mortgage ever received for record at the Nansemond County Clerk's office was filed yesterday. It is a $200,000,000 mortgage from the Southern Railway to the Standard Trust Company of New York conveying in trust properties and franchises owned or controlled by the railroad in the District of Columbia and 11 States. The issue will be 4 per cent. 50-year bonds of $1,000 denomination.

John B. Caldwell one of the most popular society young men in Southwest Virginia, is held a prisoner at Wise charged with the theft of money from the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company that will, it is believed, exceed $15,000. Caldwell's method, the officers of the company declare, was to make false reports on the time of employes, then send to the general offices forged receipts corresponding with the time reported. The men would get pay for correct time, and Caldwell would pocket the balance.

The home of Richard Triplett, a farmer in the western part of Frederick county, was partially wrecked Tuesday by miscreants, who ruined the house and defaced and destroyed the furniture and contents during the owner's absence. On his return to the house Mr. Triplett found parts of theporches had been torn away and the windows smashed. Triplett is the father of Stanley Triplett, who was expelled from school because he was alleged to have negro blood in his veins. The boy was afterward reinstated by the school trustees, physicians testifying that he had no negro blood. It is believed the boy's reinstatement at school led to the outrage.

Yesterday's sessions of the Virginia Conference of Charities and Corrections in Petersburg were devoted to the reading of many papers on different phases of charitable, reformatory and corrective works. The morning session concluded with an address on education as a factor in charity, by John M Glenn, of Baltimore. The care of friendless and wayward girls was the subject of discussion, at the evening session, and the necessity for the establishment of a state institution for that purpose was strongly urged by S P. Waddill, of Henrico county; Dr. Robert Frazer and Charles Hutzler, of Richmond, all of whom went into a detailed discussion of methods of training and education.

The Supreme Council, Royal Arcanum, which has been holding its annual convention at the Chamberlin Hotel, Old Point, adjourned yesterday afternoon to meet next year in Boston. It was learned last night that the Supreme Council passed a resolution expelling from the order Frank Z. Wilcox, a prominent lawyer of Syracuse, N. Y., who, when the rates were increased last year, published an article severely criticising the Supreme Council and its members. Wilcox is a member of the Syracuse Lodge. The body also voted to increase the representation of the Grand Council. Hereafter each grand council will be entitled to three representatives instead of two.

An attempt was made Tuesday night to rob the Southern Railway station at Hamilton. Frank Laycock, the assistant agent, was spending the night in the office. He was awakened by some one trying to enter the front door. Seizing his pistol, he fired three shots through the door. The fire was returned through the window, the bullet passing close to Mr. Laycock. The robbers fled, leaving behind them two dynamite fuses, ready capped: a box of dynamite caps, two drills, a crowbar, a heavy piece of scantling, and a Baltimore and Ohio time table. The crowbar was the property of the railroad company, and the person who secured it was evidently familiar with the premises. The station has been robbed three times within the past few years.

Letter to John A. Cogan.

Alexandria Virginia,

Dear Sir: A property-owner of Skowhegan, Maine, had a house to paint, and "saved 10 cents a gallon" by trying another paint than Devoe.

But his paint was 10 per cent short-measure; 10 per cent of the liquid was water; and 33 per cent of the pigment barytes.

How much, do you think, he saved?

One of the difficulties, in paint, is the fact that a cheat is as good as a paint, till you find it out; and lots of men go through the world and never find-out the cheats that keep them poor.

Go by the name: be willing to pay a few cents more for Devoe; be glad to.

Yours truly,
F W DEVOE & Co.

DIED.

At "Oakwood," the residence of his brother-in-law, Rev S. A. Wallis, on Seminary Hill, Thursday morning, May 24, at 7:05 o'clock, WILLIAM POWELL SNOWDEN, youngest son of the late Edgar and Louisa Snowden. Funeral from Christ Church Friday evening, May 25, at 5 o'clock. Interment private.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving, but sad remembrance of our dear father, FERDINAND F. HEISLEY, who departed this life May 24, 1900—six years ago today.

Father, we miss thy loving care,
Thy tender smile so dear.
Mother, too, has left us
Since thou wert here to cheer.

BY HIS CHILDREN.

VIRGINIA.—In the Clerk's Office of the Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, on the 21st day of April, 1906.

Elizabeth M. Wyman vs. William Wyman.

Sun rises tomorrow at 4:38 a. m. and sets at 7 14 p. m. High water at 8:34 a. m. and 9:06 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair tonight and Friday; light southerly winds.

Memorial Day Services.

The weather today has been propitious for a celebration and the memorial services which will be rendered near the close of the day by R. E. Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans and others, both ladies and gentlemen, will be successful and interesting throughout. Committees during the earlier part of the day strewed flowers upon the graves of deceased ex-Confederates in the cemeteries adjoining this city and in Ivy Hill. The veterans and others who will take part in the parade will meet at Lee Camp Hall at 4:45 o'clock this evening and headed by the Marine Band and escorted by the Alexandria Light Infantry will parade the principal streets and then march to the monument, where an address will be delivered by Hon. John Lamb, of Richmond.

After the exercises at the monument the procession will reform and march to Christ Church yard, where the concluding exercises will be held at the mound over the Confederate dead buried there. The following are the committees of the camp.

Memorial Day exercises, Messrs. Ramsay, Perry, Lyles, Gorman and Latham. To assist the ladies at the monument, Messrs. Milburn, Warfield, Appich and Davidson. To decorate graves at the cemeteries near the city, Messrs. May, Yeatman, Zimmerman, Blackburn, Sherwood, Hammond, Knox, Taylor, and Graham. At Ivy Hill Cemetery, Messrs. Blackford, Wise and Herbert. At St. Mary's Cemetery, Messrs. Latham, Gorman and Hurdle.

The vocal music at the monument this evening will be under the direction of Mrs. M. B. O'Brien.

Suicide in a Hotel.

A man who registered as Fred Schneider was found in a room of the Fleischmann Hotel shortly after one o'clock this afternoon asphyxiated from illuminating gas. He had been dead fully 12 hours when found. There was nothing on the person of the deceased to show where he belonged nor his occupation. He was a neat, looking elderly man, between 75 and 80 years of age and was of German birth. About $40 and a pistol were found in his pockets. Justice Julius Pelton made the necessary legal examination and, not deeming an inquest necessary, turned the remains over to Demaine & Son. There was every indication that the man committed suicide, as all crevices in the room had been closed with paper and the keyhole in the lock on the door plugged with the same. He had turned on two gas jets. The man wore a comparatively new suit of gray serge bearing the imprint of J. Gumpel & Son, New York, and besides his pocketbook and the revolver, which was of an obsolete pattern but was loaded with fresh cartridges, had in his clothing one half of a silver dollar of 1879, a tooth and a cigar holder. His shoes were almost new but were covered with dust, indicating that he had walked through the country before his arrival at the hotel, evidently contemplating his end. There was nothing in the clothing that would lead to the man's identity but his remains will be held several days in case his description might attract the attention of his relatives or friends.

Elk's Bazar.

The visit of the Red Men in full war paint and the attendance of several other organizations added greatly to the interest of the Elk's carnival last night. The Young Men's Sodality Lyceum, the Ancient Order of Hibernians and the Knights of Columbus also attended. An enjoyable feature of the evening was the performance of the Rector troupe of bicyclists. To-night there will be an equally attractive vaudeville act by one of the most famous slack wire artists. The voting contest for the loving cup for the most popular Odd Fellow has been called off and this handsome cup will be raffled for. Friday and Saturday nights will be auction nights and rare opportunities for bargains are promised.

The drawing for the motor boat will take place at 10 o'clock the last night. The drawing for the automobile will be held in the armory Friday evening, June 1, at 8 o'clock.

Among the donations to the bazaar is a six months ticket on the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Railway, contributed by Superintendent Colvin. Chances on this ticket may be obtained at Mrs. L. E. Uhler's booth.

The voting contest will close tonight.

Steamboat Company Issues Bonds.

A mortgage to secure an issue of $200,000 in bonds has been signed by the Washington and Potomac Steamboat Company, recently incorporated, successor to the E. S. Randall Potomac River Line Company and the E. S. Randall Steamboat and Excursion Company, and will, it is understood, soon be filed in Maryland, Virginia and in the Georgetown Custom House. The issue of bonds consists of 400 bonds of $500 each, payable May 4, 1926, with interest at 5 per cent. The mortgage covers the real estate holdings of the company at River View and Colonial Beach and also the steamers St. Johns, Queen Anne, Harry Randall, Estelle Randall, the Wakefield and the T. V. Arrowsmith. The bond issue is for the purpose of further developing the excursion resorts and other interests of the company.

Half-hour Ferry Service.

Commencing on Sunday next, May 27, the new ferry steamers Woodbury and Callahan will make half-hourly trips between Alexandria and Washington. On that day the Woodbury will leave Washington at 6:30 a. m. at which time the Callahan will leave Alexandria. This service will be continued up to 6:30 o'clock p. m. When the steamer reaches this city from Washington at 7 p. m. she will lay up on the north side of the Norfolk steamers' pier at the foot of Prince street. The steamer which leaves this city at 6:30 p. m. will from that time make hourly trips between the two cities up to and including the 10:30 trip from Alexandria to Washington.

Death of Mr. Powell Snowden.

Mr. William Powell Snowden, youngest son of the late Edgar and Louisa Snowden, died shortly after 7 o'clock this morning at "Oakwood," the residence of his brother-in-law, Rev. S. A. Wallis, at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, where he had been staying for the past three months. The deceased had been in ill health for nearly a year and during the past three months had been confined to his room. Mr. Snowden had from his boyhood days been identified with the Gazette office, and was well-known throughout the entire community. He was affable and courteous and enjoyed a large circle of friends. His funeral will take place from Christ Church tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lewis Coates, colored, arrested by Officer Ferguson charged with an assault on Emma Carter, was dismissed.

Ministers and Saloons.

At a temperance rally in Roanoke last Sunday Dr. Young, one of the speakers, in illustrating something he was endeavoring to impress upon his hearers said that at Alexandria, where the people walk so straight they lean back, and when it rains they get wet in front before the water strikes their shoulders, the ministers were hand in hand and were waging war on the saloon.

Relief Meeting.

A special meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night when arrangements for attending the firemen's convention in Richmond in August were perfected.

A special meeting of the company will be held tonight to take action on the death of Mr. Powell Snowden, who was a member of that company.

Indicted for Murder.

A dispatch from Winston Salem, N. C., says that the grand jury of Forsythe Superior Court yesterday afternoon returned true bills against Samuel Kobre, William Plean, and J. E. Witbeck, charging them with the murder and robbery of Henry Kobre, a Hebrew, in Winston Salem, January 19. Samuel Kobre is a brother of the murdered man.

Pinafore.

The advance sale of seats for Pinafore has been large, but there are still a number to be had. In addition there are about one hundred good seats on the first floor which cannot be reserved; these will be on sale the night of the performance. As the opera does not begin until 8:15, the doors will not be open until 7:30.

Car Raised.

The coal car which ran overboard from the transfer barge at the foot of Wilkes street last Sunday morning has been raised and is being pulled ashore on the lot adjoining the Vulcanizing Works. The barge, which was sunk by the accident, has been pumped out, and the transfer of trains between this city and Shepherd's will be resumed.

The Hospital Investigation

Captain C. B. Trevillian occupied the stand the whole of yesterday morning and gave the hospital investigating committee in Williamsburg testimony in regard to the food given the patients. Captain Trevillian said an average breakfast given the patients would be baker's bread, molasses and coffee. Two slices of bread were alloted to each patient. The bread was always cold, except that given to the working patients who are allowed two biscuits in addition to the baker's bread. It was very often the case that a hungry patient would steal the food of another who was not hungry or was slow in eating. Watch was kept to prevent this, but each attendant had to watch over fifty patients and not much could be done. Captain Trevillian also said that the meal service was very poor. Generally half an hour elapsed between the time the food left the kitchen and the time the patients began eating. It was almost impossible to serve the meals hot under these conditions. Dr. Trevillian was very loth to tell what he knew about the strained relations between the officers of the hospital, but it was finally drawn out that religion and politics was at the bottom of all the trouble. It was also stated that the epileptics who are very much hurt by overeating were allowed to eat exactly what the others got and sometimes stole other patients' rations, too.

Famous Strike Breakers

The most famous strike breakers in the land are Dr. King's New Life Pills. When liver and bowls go on strike, they quickly settle the trouble, and the purifying work goes right on. Best cure for constipation, headache and dizziness. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater &Sons', druggists.

Desperate Attempts at Suicide.

While waiting in the anteroom of Third Deputy Commissioner Mathot's office at police headquarters in New York yesterday to be arrested for perjury in the Berthe Claiche case, Policeman Harry Morton made two attempts to commit suicide, once with his revolver and again by swallowing glass. He fought like a maniac with Commissioner Mathot, Secretary Lawrence and Policeman Carroll. So fiercely did he struggle when they took the revolver from him that he fainted. Revived with a drink of water, he bit a piece of glass from the goblet and had almost swallowed it when Mathot choked him and beat his face until he allowed them to remove it. Then he was taken away under arrest by Detective Fitzsimmons. He was hurried over to the Criminal Courts building to be arraigned before Justice Scott, who is hearing the Terranova case. There are three indictments for perjury against Morton for his testimony in defense of the Claiche woman, who is charged with killing her master, Gerdron. At the time it was alleged by some policemen that Morton was in love with the woman. Morton was alleged to have perjured himself when he declared that Gerdron said to her a moment before she shot him: "If you have me arrested I will kill you when I get out." It is now stated that Gerdron could not speak English. Another witness at the Claiche trial testified that Morton assured Berthe Claiche when she was arrested that she would soon be free.

President Asked to Intercede.

Solomon Stoessel, of Cleveland, Ohio, who says he is a cousin of Gen. Stoessel, the Russian officer condemned to death, has written the following letter to President Roosevelt asking him to intercede to save the commander's life:

"Your excellency: Gen. Stoessel has been, by the War Department of St. Petersburg, sentenced to death because he was compelled to surrender Port Arthur to the Japanese. Your excellency, as a war veteran, is fully aware of the fact that Stoessel defended Port Arthur with the greatest courage and amid great hardship as a true soldier for eleven months, with the expectation of getting outside assistance, which, however, never arrived. I, the undersigned, would pray to your honor that, if convenient, you would, through the Russian consul, ask to have the decision of the St. Petersburg War Department set aside and to give Stoessel a new trial, which, without any doubt, would end in a fairer decision."

"My cousin is a reformed Jew," said Stoessel yesterday. "Gen. Kuropatkin, who could have come to the rescue of my cousin in Port Arthur and prevented its fall, hates the Jews. He desired to see Gen. Stoessel's downfall, and so he remained away until Port Arthur fell."

Married in Lunch Wagon.

Married in a lunch wagon after a romantic elopement was the unique experience of a handsome and aristocratic looking young couple in Elizabeth, N. J., yesterday, and to add one more unusual feature to the occurrence the officiating clergyman was a dominie who happened to be eating in the wagon. The bridegroom gave his name as Lloyd Smith and the bride said she was Miss Beatrice Grieson. They drove up to the wagon in an automobile and asked Edward Flynn, the proprietor, if he could direct them to a minister. The feeding minister said: "I am one. I'm the Rev. John Gaines, of Delaware; here on a visit." It took less than five minutes to tie the knot and to divide a healthy-looking roll of bank notes between the preacher and the lunch wagon man, after which the couple dashed away, not forgetting to get a crude sort of a marriage certificate. In less than 10 minutes another automobile, containing a man and a heavily furred and very irate woman, drove up. They were the girl's parents. They stopped only long enough to ask a question or two, and then pursued the young people, who had gone toward Newark. Both automobiles had come from the direction of Rutherford.

A Year of Blood.

The year 1903 will long be remembered in the home of F. N. Tackets, of Alliance, Ky., as a year of blood; which flowed so copious y from Mr. Tackett's lungs that death seemed very near. He writes: "Severe bleeding from the lungs and a frightful cough had brought me at death's door, when I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, with the astonishing result that after taking four bottles I was completely restored and as time has proven permanently cured." Guaranteed for Sore Lungs, Coughs and Colds, at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Killed in a Duel.

An outdoor political meeting addressed by Hoke Smith was broken up at Chipley, Ga., yesterday by a pistol duel on the edge of the crowd in which Joseph Hastey, a farmer, was killed and John Irvin, his slayer, was killed three blocks distant by a crowd who pursued him. It is reported that bad feeling had existed between the two men on account of a small debt—15 cents—and when they met at the speaking yesterday the quarrel was renewed. In spite of efforts to calm them, they began shooting, with the result that Hastey fell, dying almost instantly. Irvin ran, followed by several men. The pursuers kept up a fusillade of shots, and about three blocks distant from the meeting Irvin fell, pierced by a number of bullets, dying immediately. About sixty-five shots were fired. Two spectators at the political meeting were slightly wounded by stray bullets.
